

Wilson Reading System®

Student Reader Five

FOURTH EDITION

Wilson Language Training Corporation

www.wilsonlanguage.com

Wilson Reading System® Student Reader Five

Item # W4SR05AB

ISBN 978-1-56778-637-8

FOURTH EDITION

PUBLISHED BY:

Wilson Language Training Corporation

47 Old Webster Road

Oxford, MA 01540

United States of America

(800) 899-8454

www.wilsonlanguage.com

Copyright ©1988, 1996, 2018 Wilson Language Training Corp.
All rights reserved. No part of this work may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic or mechanical, including photocopying, recording, or by information storage and retrieval system or network, without permission in writing from Wilson Language Training Corporation.

Printed in the U.S.A.

November 2022

► Sequence of Word Study Skills

- 5.1 open syllable in one-syllable words (go, hi); y as a vowel (shy); six open-syllable prefixes (co-, de-, e-, pre-, pro-, re-)
- 5.2 open syllables combined with vowel-consonant-e and closed syllables in two-syllable words (student, locate); open-syllable prefixes added to stand-alone, simple words (recall, defrost); open-syllable prefixes added to closed, and v-e Latin-base elements to form complex words (predict, propose)
- 5.3 y as a vowel at the end of two-syllable words when combined with a closed syllable or another open syllable (empty, pony)
- 5.4 multisyllabic words, combining three syllable types: open, closed, vowel-consonant-e (volcano, regulate); prefixes added to multisyllabic base words with open, closed, and v-e syllables, including complex words (copilot, disrespect)
- 5.5 open syllable exception a and i in unaccented, open syllables, (Alaska, indicate); prefix a- added to simple words (awake)

► High Frequency Words

|     |                       |                                       |                         |                            |                   |
|-----|-----------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------|
| 5.1 | several               | thoughtboughtbroughtought | threefourfourth | beforebelowbetween | different         |
| 5.2 | ownownerowned | househouses                       | toward                  | heart                      | learnlearned  |
| 5.3 | womanwomen        | beautiful                             | pretty                  | don't                      | person            |
| 5.4 | father                | motherbrother                     | sister                  | daughter                   | sonwonton |
| 5.5 | familyfamilies    | soon                                  | almost                  | early                      | since             |

---

be

hi

me

no

she

fry

sky

try

so we

he

I

cry

ye

my

---

go

by

he

I

pro

shy

my

be

dry

hi

fly

me

so

why

we

---

---

flu

sly

lo

ply

sty

spy

spry

pi pry

thy

lo

flu

sly

ply

pi

---

pi

thy

sty

ply

sly

ply

lo

spy

pi

sly

flu

spry

flu

pry

lo

---

---

ste

bla

shra

cly

mo ve

cho

spo

cre

gri

ze

stru

fru

thu

vo

---

cha

twy

stro

pru

gly

spru

stry

bli

clo

ve

thry

gre

spro

ste

cho

---

fote

vash

frope

glire

spru

bla

ste

stren vam

hup

gri

crene

mo

cret

chep

---

thu

scope

stry

draze

thip

bli

mish

shra

hape

cho

cre

scrab

stine

drim

clab

---

- 1 Tom gave me four plums to share with my pals.
- 2 We should fry up three plates of chicken wings to bring to the picnic.
- 3 Mo brought his pet cat to visit with me when I was sick.
- 4 The small infant did cry and cry for her milk.
- 5 Flo gave me several red grapes at lunch today.
- 6 Calvin ought to finish his chores so he can get to the dentist on time.
- 7 Why don't we go to the lake before sunset so we can go for a swim?
- 8 Ben thought that I should fly nonstop to Texas.
- 9 We had to try to drive the van between the cones.
- 10 Ty bought two plane tickets so he could fly to Nantucket with me.

- 1 We thought it would be fun to try to hike up the big hill.
- 2 He said that the fourth-grade class will be on the bus by nine a.m.
- 3 He insisted that we get a different basketball to use in the game.
- 4 Sam brought a bucket to collect shells while we walk by the shore.
- 5 Jo sat on the rug between Chad and me.
- 6 Dave intended to fix his bike so he could ride it to work.
- 7 Do not cry about the small problem.
- 8 There are several pans to use if you want to fry that fish.
- 9 Before we go for a jog, we should make sure the fog is gone.
- 10 Jill said hi to me when we were in class.

- 1 Hank brought a bag of dry socks on the backpacking trip.
- 2 There was a massive log between the sly fox and me.
- 3 Beth used the number pi to solve the math problems.
- 4 She found four wine glasses below the sink.
- 5 Jo had to pry the lock off the metal chest.
- 6 My boss asked me to complete the job a different way.
- 7 Because Gramps is spry, we thought he could go on the hike.
- 8 She went with Bill to try the hip-hop class on campus.
- 9 Try to pull the valve off to fix the old pipe.
- 10 Several kids in my class have the flu, so Mrs. West will have to postpone the test.

- 1 Kim could not pry the lid off the jug for me.
- 2 Glen bought some pills to help get over the flu.
- 3 He brought his new drone to see if it would fly.
- 4 Three or four firemen will check the home to be sure the blaze is out.
- 5 The wind was so strong that no more wires hung from the poles.
- 6 We all thought that the man with the glasses was a spy.
- 7 Bill thought he should shave and dress before the banquet.
- 8 Why does she stockpile boxes of glass jugs below the shelf?
- 9 We will try a different way to drive to the golf pro shop.
- 10 I ought to visit my friends in Dublin when I fly to Ireland on the fourth.

Wade's First Ride in the Sky

Wade has thought about this trip for over a year. It will be his first time on a jet plane! Mom, Dad, and Wade are done packing their bags, and now it is time to go.

On the way, Wade asks, "How big is the jet?"

Mom and Dad say, "It's a great big plane, and you are going to have a grand time in the sky."

They pull up to the drop-off lane and get several bags from the back of the van. Dad drives off to put the van in a different lot. He will meet them at the gate. People are rushing around everywhere! Mom has to unzip her handbag to find their two plane tickets. She gives the tickets to the tall man working at the front of the line.

When at the gate, Mom and Wade rest until Dad comes. Then, Mom says, “We ought to get in line. It’s just about time to go!” All three of them walk down the long ramp to the plane. Before long, they will take off and be in the sky at last! Wade will then have to think about what new thing he can try next!

An Acting Class for Maxim

Maxim is only in the fourth grade, but someday he wants the world to admire him. He is not a shy kid, and he wants to learn how to act! Maxim's dad thinks he ought to give acting a try and gets him acting lessons with Miss Flo. It is important to work with a pro and be instructed about the many different acting methods. Miss Flo will help him become a star!

Maxim works fast to finish his chores and math problems for the next day. He wants to get to this new acting class on time. The address is only four blocks away, and the sky is full of sun, so it will be good to walk there.

Maxim and his dad walk together at a quick rate. They make it with time to spare. Once inside, Maxim checks in for the class. He looks around, and there are three other kids who will be attending the class with him. Maxim wonders if they have done this before. Then, Miss Flo calls everyone into class. Maxim hugs his dad and rushes off to try his very first acting class.

Jade's Hidden Job

Jade was a whiz before she was four years old. She went on to be at the top of her class. So, it's no shock that she now has a fantastic job. Jade travels around the world and is seldom home. She is on the go every month or so. When you ask her what she does for work, Jade is hush-hush.

We all try to think, “What could it be?” Between all of us, we try to probe, but in the end, Jade is not moved to tell us what she does. She has a lot of distrust and says she ought to hide the facts about her job. However, one day, the ever so sly Jade gives me several hints. She tells me that her work involves these three things: wise tactics, vanishing acts, and ending crime. Now, how do you suppose Jade spends her time?

There is no dispute that Jade is a pro in her role, and I have a wild guess as to what she does! I suspect Jade is a spy! What do you think?

Jake's Plan for Great Food PART ONE

Jake is the first one up, and he has plans to make food for everyone in the house. He moves down the hall with a soft step so he does not wake anyone. He bought all the fixings the day before and was sly about putting the things away while no one was looking. He hopes to please his wife and four kids with this small act of goodwill.

Jake thinks, "I ought to take great care and try not to make a sound. This is no time to be quick and spry and risk a wake up."

As Jake is about to pry out the pots and pans without a bang or thump, his four-year-old child, Montel, comes in and says, "Hi!" He gives his dad quite a scare.

Jake says, “Oh my! I did not intend to wake you.”

Montel asks, “Why?”

“Because I had hopes to please all of you with some great food,” says Jake. “Now that you are up, would you like to help me?”

Jake's Plan for Great Food PART TWO

Montel is glad to assist his dad. They conspire to get everything done before Mom and the rest of the kids wake up. They fry up some eggs and make a tall stack of pancakes. While the stove is still hot, Jake mixes up some hash in a skillet. Then, Montel sets the plates out and puts piles of napkins between them. Jake chops up several different kinds of plums and puts them on a big plate with some red grapes.

Montel asks, "Is it time to wake everyone up?"

"Yes," Jake says. "Let's get the rest of the clan to come down and find these eggs and pancakes!"

Mom and the other three kids are in shock when they see what Jake and Montel have been up to. They all sit and dig in. The food tastes great, and Jake thanks Montel for his part in pulling it all off.

recall

preset

debug

react

cohost

declass

rewind

reflex

defrost

refresh

refund

preplan

reuse resolve

pretest

---

reset

precut

rethink

predate

denote

rehang

restate

premix

restore

redraft

resale

retake

remake

recheck

defog

---

moment

even

basin

native

student

unit

silent

basis

hotel

behind

before

locate began

evolve

became

---

belong

behave

focus

equip protect request

music

erode

humid beside

native

prepare

unite

basic relate

---

detect

item

open

total

provide vital

debate

secret

despite pupil

defend promote sacred

label

devote

---

final

legal local human

reside

pilot defense negate

derive evil

define

student

response

potent

desire

---

|        |         |          |
|--------|---------|----------|
| result | present | propose  | | event  | require | describe | | demand | depend  | pretend  | | refuse | resist  | profess  | | elect  | respect | depress  |

---

|          |          |         |
|----------|----------|---------|
| prevent  | reflect  | depend  | | depress  | predict  | propose | | destruct | progress | elect   | | resist   | demand   | result  | | present  | provide  | require |

---

rechecks

refreshes

cohosts

detective

locates

resets

prepares

professes

resolves

predicted

evolves predictive

recalls

migrates

pretended

---

basics

reacts

unites restores demanding

erodes

focusing

rethinks

decodes

requested

depresses

refunded progressive reminds

remakes

---

opens

humans

directed labeling

detected pilots

responds labels

defended provides equips

debates

derives defines responding

---

progresses

defends

promotes responded

totaling restricts

selects

finals opening

negates

declines

detects

piloted

labels

selecting

---

bonus

menu

robot

pecan

erase

tulip

apron

emu

minus

bingo

jumbo

donut

lilac

banjo

siren

---

minus

siren

banjo

tulip

bagel

token

jumbo

bingo

bonus

erase

donut

apron

hippo

robot

menu

---

ozone

radon

halo

solo

lupine

omit

nylon dilute

donate

canine

apex

cubit

divest bequest

elate

---

humane feline

rotate

equate elope

primate

crusade

pylon

motive

dilate

brazen

proton

rodent

decal

behold

---

mutate

limbo

prudent python

motto

hydrate

stipend

gusto

rebuke

duplex obese

logo

regret microbe

bypass

---

hybrid

matrix

tempo

procure

spyglass putrid finite stucco

bronco

gumbo probate

evade

refract

thesis

locust

---

sequel opal

revive

rival

neglect frugal

fragrant

bison

demise

deplete

sinus

mason

haven

deflate

crocus

---

revere

detach

hydrant

delete

raven

rebel vacant

detest

deprive migrant blatant

oval

relent

locus veto

---

deduct

propel

detract

preclude

emit

repute

resume

profuse

defuse

erupt

revoke

defect

deject

repress

reject

---

eject deflect

repel erect regress

protract

devise

revise edict

presume

evoke

remand prescribe provoke

evict

---

evades

defective deducting

revives

detaching

deletes

repels

rejected

emits

erecting primates

dilutes

ovals neglected

crusades

---

bypasses

evicted

neglects

slogans

resumes

mutates

ejected

relaxes

deducted

detaches

deflected

revokes

propels

erupting

sequels

---

blenet

frolipe

glestome

restrimp

trenete

delum

rotrab

ploshent

streblent

glimote

tridem

brytome

stumest

crimope

botrib

---

glosop

benap

demest

floment

triglone

crozump

clystip

deplond

grystod

regrest

protrum

rebect

plton

stomest

trymest

---

- 1 Robin had to remake her bed after her dog took a nap on it.
- 2 Travis had to preplan a lunch for work.
- 3 Dr. Stock has to recheck Shane's heart one more time.
- 4 Kevin could not recall the last time he went on a hike.
- 5 The cohost just learned that all the plates are missing!
- 6 Ken had to restate that his house was not for sale.
- 7 Let's remake the fire and sit beside it with a good book.
- 8 I thought that the owner would restore the important mill.
- 9 Dad did not react well when we told him about the missing golf clubs.
- 10 Can I get a refund for this laptop that does not work?

- 1 Janet called to request a refund on the dress.
- 2 The moment that Gus left the dogs at the kennel, he ran toward home.
- 3 Judith will learn how to use her new yo-yo.
- 4 After Iris took a look at the menu, she told the owner she would like a bagel.
- 5 Kate will push the desk behind the wall.
- 6 How will your mom react when we prepare pancakes for brunch?
- 7 Please erase the mistake before you submit the final draft.
- 8 Randall used plants that are native to this part of the world.
- 9 Did the students donate to the humane club?
- 10 She learned that we could locate several houses that are for sale.

- 1 Ted hid the secret gift he got for his dad.
- 2 Mike went to the local pet shop to get some new fish for his tank.
- 3 The kids left the gate open behind them.
- 4 The big dog will defend its owner by standing on the front steps.
- 5 Mr. Simon smiles and waves hello to his math students at lunchtime.
- 6 Bill had to decline two tickets to the game.
- 7 It is polite to thank your host after you attend an event.
- 8 Mr. White learned that he could depend on us to help with the crisis.
- 9 When I invite you to lunch, I expect a prompt response.
- 10 It is human to make a mistake, but most important to learn from it!

- 1 Going for a jog every day can prevent a bad heart.
- 2 Mrs. Griffin will require the class to walk toward the open gate.
- 3 Tess likes to pretend that she lives in a house in the tropics.
- 4 The vet likes to provide each new dog owner with a checklist.
- 5 The rules of the game require Sam to put his cash in a big pile.
- 6 Why did Bob refuse my help with the raft?
- 7 Deb plans to propose a way to fix the cracks in the stone wall by my house.
- 8 We had to vote to elect Ms. Jackson to Congress.
- 9 Bill was asked to describe the house that he lives in.
- 10 The fifth-grade class will attend the event to learn more about small mammals.

- 1 Val detects the smell of bacon coming from the stovetop.
- 2 Tyrone could not relax until he learned the final results of the test.
- 3 All of the owners will plant tulips in front of their houses toward the end of April.
- 4 The labels on the pants had the size printed upside down!
- 5 Byron was selected for the trip to Peru in the final contest!
- 6 Steve refills the tank with gas.
- 7 David devotes equal time to both projects.
- 8 Mrs. West requires her students to take a pretest.
- 9 Before you define that word, take a moment to think how it relates to this text.
- 10 Eden predicted there would be several houses for sale on our block this year.

- 1 My mom must resolve to take care of her heart.
- 2 Grant will restate the facts from the book.
- 3 Blake is helping to precut the ribbons for the craft.
- 4 Jess had to rehang every shelf in the house with new brackets.
- 5 They will reset the game clock after the medics help Ethan walk to the sideline.
- 6 Bill learned that his boss plans to retire in three months.
- 7 In his heart, Jake knew he must rethink his plan to own a condo in Boston.
- 8 If we premix the concrete, the job will be done on time.
- 9 Fran asked if she could retake the quiz to get her grade up.
- 10 Beth does not recall the name of the owner of the pink house.

- 1 The firetruck had to evade the mob of people.
- 2 Kevin had a red logo on the back of his jacket.
- 3 Pam used the exit ramp to bypass the traffic.
- 4 Jim was silent when he learned that he would get the solo in the class skit.
- 5 The man removed the decal from his truck.
- 6 The owner of the house learned that cats can solve a rodent problem.
- 7 In his heart, he knew that he should prepare to go on strike.
- 8 Mrs. King told me that a feline is a cat.
- 9 Jason will donate cash to the fund drive.
- 10 Rod learned that he will get a big stipend for his work.

- 1 The tempo of the music was very fast.
- 2 There was a pile of oval stones next to the house.
- 3 The putrid smell came from the open trash can.
- 4 Tyrone will regret not checking the locks.
- 5 Once Calvin learned how to deflate the raft, he put it behind the house.
- 6 If you neglect the plant, it will not thrive.
- 7 Mom is frugal and comes up with lots of ways to save cash.
- 8 You will learn that Chuck is the secret hero of the novel.
- 9 Mr. Smith should declare the profit on the houses when he files his taxes.
- 10 Ted Mason, the owner of the house, has a strong desire to restore it for resale in the spring.

- 1 Brock had to presume that the ship was intact.
- 2 Peg did try not to provoke a dispute with Steve.
- 3 Jill used a mix of lemon and cloves to repel the insects.
- 4 Tad got pills to help with his heart defect.
- 5 The frog's long legs will help propel him through the water.
- 6 Lucas will resume his work with the snakes in the lab next spring.
- 7 Brandon had to learn how to revise his own work.
- 8 Why did the small kitten reject the can of food?
- 9 We hope that the owner will restore the old mill and provide many local jobs.
- 10 When the new owner moved into the house, he found that there were many insects he had to repel.

- 1 Jess dilutes the lemon drink with water.
- 2 The clock emits a ticking sound all day long.
- 3 Tom detaches the swing from one end of the rope.
- 4 Jim regrets not asking his wife to go on the camping trip.
- 5 Sheldon did not waste time responding to my note about the heart fund event.
- 6 The students are pleased to begin collecting dog food to donate to the local kennel.
- 7 We reflected on what we learned from the debate.
- 8 The contract prevented legal problems when Mr. Tyson inspected the house.
- 9 The owner said he would fix the defective wires in the house.
- 10 Milton evades the rules by pretending he does not know about them.

A Move to the States

Bruno is from the Azores in the mid-Atlantic. He sold his house there and moved to the States back in June. He always wanted to open his own bake shop. So, that's just what he did!

Bruno and his wife, Irene, wake up each day before sunrise to prepare. They begin to make their jumbo bagels and pecan donuts before the sun is up. They learned to bake back home on the volcanic landscape of the Azores.

Before Bruno lets the public into the bake shop, he sets a menu on top of a stand, and he puts a vase of fresh lilacs next to them.

As people walk toward the front door of the bake shop, Bruno is polite and always gives them a wide smile. He likes to chat with everyone as he hands them a menu.

All of the items they bake are a hit! However, by the end of the day, Bruno is spent. He sits on the front deck of the bake shop to relax. Bruno plays music from the Azores and thinks about his new life in the States. His heart is full of pride when he thinks about all the old customs from the Azores that he can now share with his new friends.

The Attic Mess PART ONE

Mike brought his plate to the sink. Then, he asked his mom if he could go to the basketball game at seven o'clock. "That depends on your dad," she responded, "He will be home at six, and I recall that he requested your help in the attic. He could restrict you from going."

Mike learned that this was no joke. He felt his heart sink as he assisted his mom with the rest of the dishes. He did so wish to go to the game!

When Mike's dad came in the house, Mike ran to ask him about going to the game. But, his dad was quick to declare, "Mike, I know you desire to go have some fun, but let me remind you about the attic. It's a great spot to hang out with your friends, however, you have been inattentive by not picking up after yourselves."

And now, you have to own that mess! You can go to the game the moment you finish, but I insist that you complete this chore with me first.”

Mike spun around to detect the time on the clock. Would he ever make it to the game?

The Attic Mess PART TWO

Mike was very upset, but he could not debate this or resist the facts. He did regret that he had left the mess! He would miss the pregame fun, but he knew in his heart that he was to blame for the mess in the attic.

Mike took on the job and first moved all the waste into a trash can. He then had to scrub the closet shelf. The final item to address was fixing a crack between two steps.

Mike had to admit that his dad stuck around to help him, and it was good for the two of them to spend some time together, even if it was work.

At last, the job was complete. How would Mike's dad react? Well, he was pleased and told Mike that the attic was now in good shape. Mike had learned a good lesson about respecting the house rules. Next, he ran off toward the basketball game professing, "I am not going to trash the attic ever again!"

Ivan Behaves at the Debate PART ONE

The students in Mrs. Russell's debate class had to prepare for an important visit next month. They would write a profile for each of the men and women from Congress who had been enlisted to discuss the problems in their state.

Ivan was often the most vocal about his thoughts in class, and he did not always stop himself when he should. Mrs. Russell told him that she expected him to be silent when the guests began to talk and debate. Ivan consented to behave because he knew inside that Mrs. Russell was right. It would not be polite to begin a blatant protest at this event.

Everyone wanted to learn about the plans of the men and women from Congress. So, each student began to draft the profiles, inspecting each and every fact the guests would present. They were intent on making Mrs. Russell swell with pride.

Ivan Behaves at the Debate PART TWO

The debate came at last, and Mrs. Russell's class was prompt and set to attend. The contest began and the class was silent. Ivan felt conflict in his own heart with some of what was said, but he was not rude. He knew to hold his comments and save them for the end when it was time to inquire of the panel.

Each man and woman from Congress presented different plans to address topics such as no water, toxic waste, safe walkways, and a new work program. Then, they went on to defend their motives.

At the end of the debate, the kids had time to address the congressmen and congresswomen and Ivan did his best to not be brazen.

The entire talk went on for more than four hours. Ivan and his class were pleased with the uplifting event and felt that they had learned a lot. Ivan held to his pact with Mrs. Russell who said this to him, “Ivan, you did a fine job at this debate. I am so glad! You kept your focus and spoke so well. You get an A for the day!”

The Stucco Home PART ONE

April went for a long drive. She was lost, but she did not care. She went down a small lane set between thick elms. At the end, there was an old stucco home for sale. April got out to inspect the house and its tranquil spot. The stucco dwelling sat at the top of a hill with a stone walk and steps. She felt like this house had been made for her!

That evening, April told her husband, Tyrone, about the old stucco home. He knew he could predict the cost - expensive! Still, he said he thought that the prospect could be good, and he would be pleased to inquire about it with her. They had been renting a house for so long. Now it was time they bought their own place!

April made the call to the estate selling the house, and they set up a time to go check it out. April and Tyrone felt the thrill of becoming home owners, but did try not to get their hopes up. As they drove down the lane toward the house, Tyrone felt very much the same way his wife felt. He fell in love with the remote spot and was enchanted by the attractive old home.

The Stucco Home PART TWO

Inside the house, April and Tyrone were in a daze. They learned that the inside of the home had been neglected, but they knew they could revive it. One could expect to run into several problems throughout an old home like this, however, the stucco on the outside was in great shape and it did hide what was on the inside. They learned that the time-tested finish may just need a quick sanding and dusting and then they could focus on the inside fixes.

At last, Tyrone felt brave enough to inquire about the cost. On the basis that this place would require a lot of work and updates, the number was not way off-base. It was, in effect, a modest cost for the size of the home and plot of land.

Tyrone and April were ecstatic! Most of the time, they were not rash people. However, this time they opted to move fast and make a bid. They knew in their hearts that this stucco home on a hill was made just for them.

baby

pony

empty

navy

duty

gravy twenty cozy

lady

lazy

hungry

study

Andy

Betsy

Tony

---

candy

plenty

ivy

tiny

ugly ruby

nasty

tidy

fifty

copy

angry

entry

Amy

Henry

Judy

---

penny

dizzy

belly

Molly

Jimmy

Libby

Lenny

Timmy

Addy

Peggy

Kenny

Buddy

Sally

Tommy

Billy

---

silly

taffy

bunny

Polly

Tammy

Lizzy

Danny

Jenny

Kelly

Benny

Freddy

Bobby

Betty

Abby

Shelly

---

frenzy

zany

gutsy

crony

canny

pantry flimsy

puny

rugby

pity

husky

levy

nifty

dandy

sentry

---

envy

nifty

duly

clumsy

frenzy

belfry

proxy

pesky

wily

bevy

gutsy

crony

sundry

shanty

pansy

---

tally

shoddy

folly sully

eddy

putty

caddy

jetty

buggy

gully

cranny

dummy

nanny

petty

shabby

---

cubby

lobby

sully

paddy

filly

daffy

ditty

canny

rally

poppy

giddy

patty

jiffy

mummy

shinny

---

- 1 The students had to copy all the spelling words in the book.
- 2 The old woman is planting ivy next to the front entry of her house.
- 3 Cathy is not lazy when she completes all of the basketball drills.
- 4 Mrs. Grady bought plenty of snacks at the store.
- 5 The gravy for the chicken is in the pot on the stove.
- 6 Dad or Mom are the only ones who can demand that I empty this trash can!
- 7 Don't you think that my ruby ring is beautiful?
- 8 Pick up that cap before the baby finds it and chokes on it.
- 9 That person must unpack fifty boxes before the end of the day!
- 10 The pretty lady at the pet shop sold twenty bags of dog food today!

- 1 Monty put the guppy in the fish tank with the other fish.
- 2 The kids had a jolly time on the slide.
- 3 After Amy ate all the candy, her belly was upset.
- 4 Jenny had a beautiful smile when Cody said she could pet the bunny.
- 5 The holly shrubs were planted all over the side of the hill.
- 6 Drop a penny into the well and make a wish!
- 7 The woman felt dizzy, so she went to the clinic after work.
- 8 Shelly likes to be cozy by the beautiful campfire.
- 9 Don't you think Lenny is a very silly person?
- 10 Mike thinks that the red taffy is the best.

- 1 The zany antics of the woman made the children smile.
- 2 Jules put the pansy plant in the pretty red pot.
- 3 The mob of men and women went into a wild frenzy at the gate.
- 4 The day was so humid and sultry that Kathy went for a swim.
- 5 The flimsy shelves will not hold all those books.
- 6 Robin will learn the rules before she attends the rugby game.
- 7 James will be the only person in his class to enlist in the Navy.
- 8 Did you pity the clumsy child when he fell?
- 9 Don't put the snacks in the pantry just yet!
- 10 The man on sentry duty made a big mistake when he left his post.

- 1 Shelly used putty to fill in the cracks in the pine desk.
- 2 Zack sat on the jetty to look at the pretty sunset.
- 3 The nanny was kind when she spoke to the children.
- 4 The once beautiful cabin was now quite old and shabby.
- 5 A bevy of students met in the hotel lobby.
- 6 Don't stop until you tally all the votes!
- 7 Adam felt giddy when the golf pro selected him to caddy at the club.
- 8 The brazen comment made Jody look like a nasty and petty person.
- 9 Benson fell into a gully while he was on the five-mile hike.
- 10 The rally was very important to all the women in the club.

The Pony Ride

Sally is five years old, and she has always wanted to go on a pony ride. She has made this request many times. At last, her dad comes into the house and asks, “Sally, don’t you think we ought to go on that pony ride today? Let’s go now!”

Dad, Mom, and Sally drive twelve miles until they find the big ranch owned by Mrs. Holly. The land is wide, and there is a tall windmill just past the chicken shed.

The three walk over to the pen to stare at the beautiful pony. However, Sally does not get too close. She hides behind her dad and acts in a shy way. It takes her some time to learn that it is safe to be next to the tiny pony whose name is Benny.

When the woman swings the gate open, Sally gives Benny a big hug and small pat on his mane. After a quick lesson to prepare, Sally gets on the pony and yells, “He is so pretty!” Sally looks around the ranch and spots rabbits, ducks, hens, and a jumbo pig. She is a very happy person on top of this strong pony.

When it is time to go, Sally thanks the ranch lady, Mrs. Holly, and hopes to come back to ride Benny again.

Ruby, the Red Bulldog

Ruby is a wild and crazy dog. She has folds of skin above her nose and hanging from her neck. Ruby also has an underbite, but her owner, Peggy, thinks she is beautiful just the same. Ruby likes to lick Peggy's legs when she gets home from work. Then, the reddish dog is happy to take a quick nap and snore in her fluffy bed.

Peggy brought Ruby to her home two years ago when Ruby was just a puppy. She was a tiny thing then, but now Ruby is a pretty big dog. She likes to munch on her dog food until her belly is full. Before it's time to go to bed for the night, Peggy takes Ruby outside to go for a run in the grass. Peggy sits and flips through a small part of her book. This part of the day is fun for Ruby. She gets to chase a chipmunk or bunny until dusk.

Peggy thinks that Ruby sometimes acts more like a person than a dog. Ruby walks around the house with a strut in her step, then zips out onto the deck and jumps up on the hammock. This funny move makes Peggy smile every time! Life without Ruby would surely be a lonesome one, and Peggy thinks, “I would be a sad woman if Ruby was not here!”

Libby Makes Grape Jelly

Libby is on a visit with Granny at her small log cabin. The cabin is just the right size for one person. Libby thinks it is cozy. Granny has a big, beautiful vase of holly on the desk and a dish of ruby red taffy. The cabin is so pretty and tidy that Libby likes visiting as often as she can. Mom and Dad just drop her off and then go to shop for the day.

Today, Granny will help Libby learn to make grape jelly. If it comes out right, Libby will take a bunch home for her mom and dad. Granny puts the plump grapes in a big pot with sugar and a cup of water. She puts the pot on the stove for ten minutes until everything gets very hot.

Granny has Libby take out the leftover chunks of grapes and put them in the trash. They don't go into the final product. The liquid that is left is put on the stove again until it turns thick. Libby puts this thick grape jelly into small crocks and shuts them with a lid.

At last, it is time for Granny and Libby to put their grape jelly on some muffins and bagels. It tastes so good! Mom and Dad will be pleased to get the crocks of grape jelly.

The Jolly Menu

Jimmy had a long day at work. He drove home at four o'clock p.m. with plans to fix something to dine on. His mind had been set on the chicken he bought at the store. However, when he got to his house, he learned that the chicken was still frozen! He had not defrosted it and he thought, "I don't have time for it to become soft!" He would have to rethink his plan and opt for something else. Jimmy was a person who could solve any problem.

So, he went into the pantry to look around. Then, he did recall that he had plenty of duck left over from the evening before when his wife made their dinner. It would be sad to waste it. Jimmy did not wish to have the same exact thing, so he used jelly and cloves to make a gravy to go with the duck. He then made a kale and fennel salad.

Jimmy's wife, Meg, came home just after dusk. He told her that everything was just about done, and he asked her to put the plates in place.

The menu was not the best. The salad had a funny taste, and the gravy was full of lumps! Still, Meg was happy to have a pretty full belly, and she thought the dish was not so bad. She made jokes with Jimmy to try to console him and stop his sulking. He did not find everything to be so jolly, but he could never resist Meg's wit and beautiful smile. Jimmy and Meg ended their menu with some pastry and a good chat.

Brody's Job at the Golf Club

Brody just got a job as a caddy at a beautiful golf club. Brody likes the job and is happy there most of the time. A lot of lucky men and women belong to the golf club, and most of them are kind and tip Brody very well.

Brody is often the caddy for Mr. Shelby. Mr. Shelby has plenty of nifty clothes that Brody thinks must cost a pretty penny. Brody also thinks that Mr. Shelby is a silly man. He makes odd comments that don't make much sense, but his chitchat makes things kind of fun.

Mr. Shelby also has a best crony. His name is Mr. Henry, and both men say that golf is their top hobby. They are always at the club swinging at balls until sunset.

Mr. Shelby is pretty shoddy at the game, but Mr. Henry is a person who is quite talented at golf. He makes some tricky putts, and Brody admires his skills.

After a long day, Brody goes up to the loft in the golf shack. It is a bit buggy and musty, but he does not mind. It is a good time to rest, relax, and just be lazy. Being a caddy for two men like Mr. Shelby and Mr. Henry is great, but it tires Brody out!

deposit

component

educate

dragonfly

regulate volcano

republic

develop

beforehand

fifty-five selectman

humankind

electric

populate

represent

---

develop

industry

republic

represent

stimulus

administrate

elastic

babysit

rejuvenate

compromise

eleventh

component

educate

regulate

ladybug

---

colony absolute academic isolate

elevate severe

electron mathematics equivalent

potato

competent

execute vitamin

enemy

divide

---

economy

benefit

element eleven

envelope

deposit

salary

instrument

buffalo tomato

consonant

molecule

skeleton

eliminate

domestic

---

mislocate

uneven

re-enlist

reinvest

misrepresent

nonbasic

miseducate

remodel

reattach

relabel

noncrisis

copilot

infrequent

revisit

inhumane

---

refocus

mid-April

redevelop

deregulate

misbehave

dislocate

relocate

nonhuman

re-explore redistribute

reinflate

reopen

untidy

preestablish

reinvite

reinvent

reelect

disrespect

recommit

nondescript

recompose

recontact

reconstruct

precompute recompute

reconsult

readmit

decompose

precommit

reconvene

---

recommit

reconsult

deconstruct

reconvene

decompose

disrespect

reelect

recompute

recontact

reinvent

reinfect

recompose

reconstruct

readmit

coexist

---

developing populates

elevates

redefines

misbehaves

republics

refocuses

elements

reconnecting

representing administrates

reelected

copilots speculates

deposits

---

reconstructs

instruments represents

envelopes

relocates

reconvenes

descriptive

reconnects

components

molecules educates

revisited

remodeling

ladybugs

isolates

---

document

calculate

faculty

opponent hazelnut

prohibit abdomen prolific

reprehend

exponent

dynamic

adhesive

masonry

infantry

redundant

---

comprehend manuscript

succulent

alfresco

deputy espresso

tuxedo

acrobat

recumbent

acumen

colossal

eclectic

monument

retrofit

allusive

---

cumulate

galaxy

momentum

amnesty

fantasy

stipulate

emulate

simulate

blazonry

utensil

didactic

rivalry

gallantry speculate

explosive

---

romantic consecutive tapestry

dynasty majesty

apprehend

impromptu basketry

cavalry

tabulate

prolific

stimulate retrograde

embassy

travesty

---

complement renovate

delegate

ebony

increment

prosecute

locomotive

memento congregate

exodus

obsolete

lucrative

antelope

monotone

delinquent

---

octagon demolish

heptagon

improvise

integrate

advocate

agony

appetize

insulate

balcony

elegant

eloquent

juvenile consecrate

credenza

---

recompile

reassess

reinstall

preinstall

subvocal

uncanny

nondidactic

imprudent

unduly

miscalculate

restimulate

reattribute

disintegrate

miscomprehend

nonrival

reinvoke

reinspire

predispose

redispose

recompress

reinfuse

reimpose

reconvict

re-eject

misprescribe

disrepute

readvise

re-emit

reinduct

misrepute

utensils

prohibiting miscalculates

retrofits

tabulates

apprehends

stipulates

documents

comprehending

hazelnuts

renegades

penetrates

apprehended

innovates

manuscripts

---

calculates

acrobats

relegates

electrodes

catalogs

simulates

miscomprehends

speculates

documented

monuments

apprehending

recompresses

cumulates

prohibitive

retrogrades

---

- 1 There are fifty-five students at the basketball game.
- 2 Mrs. Frank asked Kelly to babysit her daughter.
- 3 The pan was left on the electric stove all day.
- 4 Gabe and his sister swam away from the jellyfish.
- 5 Jim used an elastic band to hold the lid on the bucket.
- 6 My brother Bill is in the eleventh grade now.
- 7 Humankind must take care of this planet.
- 8 If I develop good study habits, I will do well in my classes.
- 9 A ladybug landed on my hand when I was at the picnic.
- 10 Calvin wants to work in the music industry.

- 1 My sister cut up a tomato for the salad.
- 2 My brother, Alfred, put the chunks of potato into the pot on the stove.
- 3 Mr. and Mrs. Smith have eleven kids.
- 4 My father had to elevate his leg after his bad fall.
- 5 Buffalo have big humps on their backs.
- 6 The class learned all their consonant sounds in just twenty-six days!
- 7 Abraham wanted to visit Manhattan with his mother.
- 8 Can you help me isolate the problem?
- 9 Did you know that there are three kinds of ants in a colony?
- 10 How can we eliminate the nasty smell in the cabin?

- 1 Jacob had to reattach the ribbon on the gift box.
- 2 The untidy cabin was not fit for renting.
- 3 Alex was able to reopen the store after the bad fire.
- 4 My son met the copilot as we exited the plane.
- 5 Ken had to relabel a ton of boxes to fix the misprint.
- 6 Sandy's daughter must relocate to Boston for her job.
- 7 We must refocus on our plan to fix the water problem.
- 8 Josh said he would reinflate the tire on my bike.
- 9 Will your mother develop a plan to remodel this beautiful old house?
- 10 If the children misbehave, their father will punish them.

- 1 It will take a long time for this trash to decompose.
- 2 When Jane's daughter got sick again, she had to recontact the clinic.
- 3 We won the basketball game, but the ref had to recompute the score.
- 4 The lab staff made sure that they did not reinfect anyone with the virus.
- 5 If we hope to reelect Pam, we must get out and vote!
- 6 Kristy had to recommit to the task to finish on time.
- 7 You should never disrespect your mother or father!
- 8 The debate club will reconvene in two months.
- 9 It will take a long time to reconstruct the old cabin.
- 10 Will they readmit us to the club if we skip the class today?

- 1 Kelly relocates lost cats to new homes.
- 2 The detective reconstructed the crime to find the suspect.
- 3 My son readjusted his hat to block out the sun.
- 4 Several components of this clock are full of rust.
- 5 Fran's brother is reconnecting all the wires in the wall.
- 6 Is your mother developing a list of chores for you?
- 7 If the class misbehaves, we will be late for lunch.
- 8 The selectman was reelected for a fifth time!
- 9 My father deposits the cash in the bank.
- 10 Molly is representing her home state in the contest.

- 1 The truck picks up momentum as it travels down the hill.
- 2 Tommy had a cup of espresso at work.
- 3 Helen will finish the fantasy novel today.
- 4 The new boss is a dynamic person.
- 5 We have a ton of cash for constructing a new monument.
- 6 My brother told me that a big black hole exists in our galaxy.
- 7 This mandate will prohibit my son from texting while he drives.
- 8 Will your sister tabulate the results of the contest?
- 9 The contract does stipulate that the staff adhere to all the rules.
- 10 My father has to rent a tuxedo for the event.

- 1 Abby and her sister will replenish the pantry with the food they collected.
- 2 The woman's eloquent words uplifted the children.
- 3 Cristy had no appetite because she was sick.
- 4 My mother used a secret remedy to help me when I was sick.
- 5 The comedy club does not open until after seven o'clock.
- 6 A man-made element can be quite toxic to humans.
- 7 My brother said that he plans to renovate his old home soon.
- 8 Will they use explosives to demolish the old dam?
- 9 You must adhere to a strict protocol when you are addressing the king.
- 10 That plan will be a ton more lucrative.

- 1 The fake plant was so lifelike, it was uncanny.
- 2 Stan's imprudent thinking is going to give rise to many more problems.
- 3 Did you miscalculate the total cost?
- 4 My mother missed the exit because of the unobtrusive sign.
- 5 Danny asked his sister to reinstall the software on his laptop.
- 6 Jill and her daughter had to reassess their plans.
- 7 Did you miscomprehend what I said?
- 8 Can you recompile the list of items we will be selling at the banquet?
- 9 It is expected that Congress will reinstate the tax.
- 10 Rick and his brother will preinstall the program on the tablet.

- 1 We must recommit to remove the stench from this closet!
- 2 The welding class will reconvene after lunch.
- 3 My mother will recontact the handyman about the defective locks.
- 4 That ton of toxic waste will never decompose.
- 5 Tim had to reconstruct the model after the collapse.
- 6 My father thinks the bill from Congress will reimpose the old tax rate.
- 7 Glen will readvise us about the stock trends.
- 8 The bellman will readmit us into the hotel lobby.
- 9 You should not disrespect a patron of the shop.
- 10 Because my son has been sick, it will predispose him to be ill again.

- 1 Caleb was not comprehending how to solve the math problem.
- 2 The book reinspires Holly to travel the world!
- 3 Enzo retrofits his laptop so he can develop online games.
- 4 Hank's sister bought him a box of hazelnuts.
- 5 The acrobats conducted one trick after another!
- 6 Where did your mother put the new utensils?
- 7 Mrs. Rose reassesses the status of the bake sale.
- 8 Dave won the bid for constructing the stone monuments.
- 9 When will your daughter publish the manuscripts?
- 10 Sandy refocuses and fixes the dent on the side of the van.

Abby's Brave Day PART ONE

The hillside wildfires are now developing into a big risk for the homeowners of the local district. Mothers, fathers, sons, and daughters have all been told to exit their homes and find a safe place away from the destructive event.

But not Abby. In the firetruck, Abby makes her way toward the unprotected homes close to the hillside. Abby is part of a unit of twenty-five firemen and firewomen, and they are never off-duty. It is their job to ensure that all the occupants relocate to a secure spot. It is sad to have to dislocate all these people, but there is too much at stake not to move them.

Abby and her unit will check each and every home. They are intent on checking all twenty-nine homes on the block. They must readjust their equipment when the hot flames shift with the winds. It is work with a ton of risk, but Abby has always been a brave person.

Abby's Brave Day PART TWO

As the flames extend past the hills, the fire unit progresses to one home after another. At the sixth house, Abby walks around and checks the back of the home. All of a sudden, she detects a soft cry from under the deck. She looks and finds out that the cry is coming from a cat. In fact, Abby spots not just one cat, but a mother cat and five kittens!

The protective mother cat has been calling for help, but she has the good sense to hide and care for her kittens. The mother cat has a tag around her neck, and Abby finds that her name is Ladybug. Abby had not expected to save a nonhuman on this day, but she knows that all life is important.

Abby inches her way under the deck, attentive to the fact that Ladybug may not respond well to her help. One by one, Abby puts the mother cat and all the kittens into her bag and sprints off to the firetruck. She has to readjust the strap on her bag more than once as she runs.

Abby makes it to the firetruck. She deposits the bag into the back of the truck, unzips it, and lets the cats out. She tells Ladybug that she has been the best mother to protect these small kittens. Abby gives all the cats some water, then tells them, “Don’t be unhappy. We will reconnect you with your owners, but for now, you will be safe in here.” Away from the wildfire, Ladybug and all the kitten brothers and sisters can relax now.

A Chicken in the Bathtub PART ONE

Russ and Glen had been friends for a long time. One day Russ told Glen that he had a new pet. Glen asked Russ if it was a dog or cat. After all, those are the pets that most people own. However, Russ told Glen that his new pet was a beautiful chicken! Her name was Polly.

The next day, Glen asked Russ if he could come by to visit with Polly, the chicken. Russ was glad to have Glen come over, but when Glen got there, Polly was gone! Russ's brother had left the gate open, and now Russ was in a panic looking for the missing pet. With help from Russ's mother and father, the two friends spent the next two hours looking for Polly. Russ could not comprehend why this chicken would misbehave like this!

They inspected all the land by Russ's house. Polly was not behind the big pile of sticks. She was not behind a ton of stone by the small pond. They even went through every inch of Russ's tri-level home. Russ and Glen called and called, but Polly did not respond.

As dusk came, Glen knew he had to go home. He told Russ he could recommit to the hunt the next day. Glen began to walk away but not before he told Russ, "Good luck!"

A Chicken in the Bathtub PART TWO

Just as Glen made it to the front steps of his house, he saw the flap of a white wing behind a shrub and said to himself, “What was that?” Glen ran to the shrub and there he found a chicken looking sad and lost. Glen thought, “Could this be Russ’s chicken, Polly? It must be!”

Glen had to move fast to grab the chicken. Once he had a good grasp, Glen ran into the house. He knew he had to call Russ right away, but where could he put this clucking ball of fluff?

Glen did not want the chicken to get away again. He deposited her in the bathtub so he could make the call to Russ. Just then, Glen’s mother came home from work. In an instant, she detected the clucking and asked, “What is that sound?”

Glen told her, “Mom, don’t be unhappy, but there is a chicken in the bathtub. We will have to babysit this chicken until we find her owner.”

Glen’s mother could not help but grin when she said, “Son, wait until I tell your father about this!”

Glen made the call to Russ to tell him what was going on. Russ was there fast, and the moment he saw the chicken, he knew it was Polly. Then he said to Glen, “Thank you for finding this silly chicken. I will relocate her back to my home now and reattach the lock on the gate. It looks like she wanted to come visit you first!”

The Explosive Volcano

The siren blasted at four a.m. All those native to the remote land had expected it - the destructive volcano had erupted! Gases and molten rocks shot through the volcano's opening and were sent into the sky like rockets. A ton of hot ash was deposited everywhere. This could cause a rockfall and then a massive mudslide. The sound of cracks developing and the hissing of volcanic gas could be detected by occupants of distant homes.

A plan had been made for everyone to vacate their homes, and now there was no time left to prepare. They had all learned that this would be a crisis for anyone inhabiting a twenty-mile span. Every man, woman, and child had to be swift to respond.

Despite the plan for a safe escape, many people did not want to exit their homes. The thought of an active volcano leveling a home was too much to take. However, they had to escape the hot, explosive volcano right away to save their lives. Mothers, fathers, daughters, and sons had to move fast. There was no time to spare, and they ran to safety!

The Diminishing Sales Problem PART ONE

Kenny and his daughter, April, had been working in the trucking industry for a long time. Their lot held more than fifty cranes, trucks, and several kinds of wagons and vans.

People could come in to set up a contract if they wanted to rent or acquire these items. Over the past year, things had been going downhill and there was a drop in sales. April and her father had neglected to uphold the important components of the working environment.

The use of their trucks was not documented, and many cranes were busted and unsafe. A ton of spare parts were missing, and no one would own up to the theft.

The staff was in grave conflict over the developing problems. Some men and women even quit!

Kenny and April knew they had to refocus and resolve to fix the grim status of their truck shop. The two bosses made a plan to be open-minded and address the mess that now existed.

The Diminishing Sales Problem PART TWO

April's father began the task of helping the twenty-three-person staff commit to enriching their jobs. He spent time working to rehire those who had left.

Kenny was a dynamic person, and he won over their hearts in an instant. The staff was cohesive once more!

Kenny's daughter spent time developing ways to reinvent their sales methods. She put into place a comprehensive mode to calculate the sales and the requests for rentals. April was then in command of all quotes and contracts. The public who visited the lot detected the progress.

The good response from everyone was uplifting. Sales were on the rise, and the two attentive bosses were now back on track!

adult

data

extra abandon

peninsula

adapt

adopt

abuse soda

Apollo

Linda

Atlanta

Alaska

Santa

China

---

adopt

abandon abundant

aluminum

extra

data

soda

academy

adult

Donna

Emma

Alaskan

Apollo

Anna

Linda

---

across

alike

awoke

awake

adrift

arise

afame

ago

aside aback

awhile

alive

aware

amend ashore

---

alike

aback

aside

abed

along

alone

ashore

atop

alive

arose

ahold

amaze

afresh

ago

across

---

attitude

capital

continent estimate

dignity

candidate

positive

gravity primitive

radical politics

indicate

maximize

substitute

candidate

---

cabinet

animal

ability difficult

positive

hospital

cavity complicate

immigrant practical

sensitive

estimate

dignity

pollinate

latitude

---

umbrella

panda

vanilla

cabinet

antenna

tuba

sofa

hesitate

granola

banana

tuna

zebra domino

pelican

apricot

---

Atlanta

Aruba

Madison

Alaska

Africa

Ella

Donna

Mexico

Jessica

Cassidy

China

Brenda

Mexican

Emma

Alaskan

---

animals

abandons

estimates

adapted

investigates

indicates amending

attitudes eliminates

immigrants adopting amends complicates candidates

pollinates

---

adopted

applicants

criminals

parades

abandoning adaptive candidates

complicates

communicates extras

institutes

hospitals

substitutes

adults

constitutes

---

cobra

magma

delta

bandanna

scuba

vista

arena

villa

yoga

tundra

alpaca

nebula

aroma

quota

ultra

---

gala

astonish

mantra

stanza

dogma

fibula

toga

alumni

abolish

puma

henna

hydra

yucca

manta

stigma

---

amass

amid aloft

aflare

aseptic

abask

agush ablaze

agaze

amuse

abate

akin

abet

ascribe

abide

---

ablaze

afore

aglare

agasp

abrim

astrut

aflush

agape

abode

athrob

amuse

aslant

adoze

asepsis

astride

imitate

dedicate

cultivate

vanity

scrutiny duplicate

litigate

episode

halibut sanitize

retina

platinum

calico

venison

levity

---

fabricate

animate

destiny

hesitant ministry

sentinel

silicone

lexicon

amplitude

utilize eminent

calibrate

optimize

subsidy

habitat

---

open syllable exception: a=/ə/ and i=/ə/ or /i/ (mixed)

---

manipulate

coma

antiquate

implicate

bonanza

homily

denizen

manicure

denigrate

cognizant

lubricant

rotunda

manifest

navigate

sanitize

---

chinchilla

instigate

indigo

replica

cannibal

multitude

emigrant

entity

dissident

mutiny

stamina

manifold

magnitude

strata

aptitude

---

multitudes

ridicules

cobras

epithets

manifested

lubricates

compliments

aromas

abdicates

meditates

detriments

emigrates

pessimists

reprimanding

galas

---

fumigates

ventilates

stigmas

manicures

sediments

replicas

altitudes

retinas

sentiments

dividends

cultivates

tundras

nominates

reprimanded

gallivants

---

- 1 Why does a zebra have stripes?
- 2 The can of tuna is on the bottom shelf.
- 3 Greta left her umbrella on the bus by mistake.
- 4 Emma drank her glass of soda too fast.
- 5 Linda let me use her extra hat since it was so cold out today.
- 6 The families did not know why anyone would abandon the dog.
- 7 The adult tickets cost almost ten bucks!
- 8 We must get to Atlanta early so we do not get stuck in traffic!
- 9 Soon I will have collected all the data for the plant study.
- 10 Patty is the only person in my family that likes granola.

- 1 Billy sat to rest awhile before his basketball game.
- 2 My family was glad to find out that our lost cat was still alive.
- 3 Almost all the vans in this lot look alike!
- 4 Each day, Stella arose early to walk her dog.
- 5 The Navy will go ashore in Brazil soon.
- 6 I cannot tell if that big crocodile is awake or not!
- 7 Sandra does not like to be at home alone.
- 8 The two families met for the first time one month ago.
- 9 Thank you for putting this book aside for me.
- 10 Bella took a long walk along the shore before sunset.

- 1 Our family dentist will drill my cavity since I am home for the month.
- 2 That chicken is the dominant one in the flock.
- 3 We could not unlock the cabinet next to my desk.
- 4 My sister, Beth, has sensitive, dry skin.
- 5 It is difficult for Tony to ask for help since he is shy.
- 6 My family thinks this will complicate the mess even more!
- 7 Soon we will learn about the continent of Africa.
- 8 The classes are intended to be held at the hospital.
- 9 Mrs. Sanchez plans to eliminate almost all of the music programs.
- 10 The salesman will estimate the cost before he gives the family a call.

- 1 Samantha cut the apricot into small chunks for the family picnic.
- 2 Eva put a soft blanket around the small animal.
- 3 Donna and Betsy are not identical twins.
- 4 Vanessa has a positive attitude about her chores.
- 5 The aluminum cans were collected in trash bags.
- 6 Did Anna indicate the book she wants?
- 7 The statistics indicate that almost all the students will pass the test!
- 8 Mona wants to visit the continent of Africa with her family next June.
- 9 Cassidy almost left her sunglasses in Aruba.
- 10 Madison will visit Atlanta with her family soon.

+ suffix

- 1 The adults will establish the rules for the class trip.
- 2 The candidates hope many people will vote early.
- 3 The family of immigrants will begin their new life here in the U.S.A.
- 4 Mike will bring the adopted dog home to live with him soon.
- 5 Brenda substitutes the milk when she bakes at home.
- 6 Suzy is almost done amending the legal contract.
- 7 Henry estimates twenty relatives will attend the family lunch in Lexington.
- 8 That detective investigates almost every case in our district.
- 9 There are seven continents on this planet.
- 10 When Mr. Jackson is ill, Mrs. Smith substitutes in our math classes.

- 1 If that volcano erupts, hot magma will rise through the cracks.
- 2 The old villa on the hillside is owned by a rich family.
- 3 Since it is so cold, many plants do not thrive in the tundra.
- 4 Will you invite all the families to the big gala?
- 5 The alumni club has lunch once a month.
- 6 Our staff soon plans to abandon almost all of that product line.
- 7 If we don't get to the yoga class early, it will fill up!
- 8 The puma is a fast land mammal.
- 9 It will astonish me if Greg comes to work on time!
- 10 The land around a delta is good for planting many crops.

- 1 With the drapes open, the hall was ablaze with sunshine.
- 2 For the Kenda family, the loss of their pet cat was akin to the passing of a human relative.
- 3 The chest was left agape in hopes that the rodent would escape on its own.
- 4 The games will amuse the families while the staff gets the plane set for takeoff.
- 5 Sonya could not see anything amid the smoke.
- 6 You must abide by the dress code!
- 7 The hilltop was abask in sunshine.
- 8 My family must amass a large fund so my mom can run for Congress.
- 9 With any luck, the wind will abate soon and we can be on our way.
- 10 Luka attempted to ascribe blame for the mishap on someone else.

- 1 Liz almost had to extricate the cat from the box.
- 2 The talented family sang the tune in unison.
- 3 The mother had to reprimand the small child for being impolite.
- 4 The calico cat took a nap on the soft blanket at the end of the bed.
- 5 Jason upset us when he would imitate people in his family.
- 6 Jim was quick to fabricate a tale to defend his bad conduct.
- 7 We will find out the answer to the problem in the final episode!
- 8 The flu epidemic is expected to end soon.
- 9 Can you calibrate the volume of the music?
- 10 Griffin is hesitant to ask his family for help.

- 1 It was difficult for the family to navigate their way to Canada by bus.
- 2 The state capitol will open early so families can see the new rotunda.
- 3 Ella got up extra early to sanitize the house.
- 4 The magnitude of the banana crop problem is massive.
- 5 Alexis gets up early each day to meditate for one hour.
- 6 It has been difficult to adapt since we got a new boss.
- 7 I must thank Rosa for the compliment.
- 8 Monica did not implicate anyone in her family for the vile crime.
- 9 Does Alexa have the stamina to make it to the end of the game?
- 10 There are a multitude of ways to study this data.

- 1 Since the fumes are toxic, Mrs. Sullivan ventilates the attic right away.
- 2 He cultivates the land so he can plant many crops.
- 3 The father is reprimanding the children again.
- 4 The Randall family fumigates their house to get rid of bedbugs.
- 5 Mr. Ash compliments the families on their new homes.
- 6 The new jet travels at high altitudes.
- 7 The aromas from that bake shop fill my nose!
- 8 Tony gallivants around with a big grin on his lips.
- 9 The panel nominates the top candidate every two years.
- 10 Mike meditates early in the day to prevent stress.

A Day with Grandma

Emma and her sister, Melissa, made plans to visit Grandma in Atlanta. Since the two gals wanted to get on their way before the traffic rush, they set their clocks to wake up early. They had bananas and a granola snack. Then, they fed the family pets before they set off on their long trip across the state.

The drive to Atlanta was full of splendid things. The abundant red hills were impressive, and Emma thought they should look at the beautiful landscape for a while. However, Melissa reminded her about their plan to spend the entire day with Grandma. Extra stops on their drive would only make them late!

It was almost nine a.m. when they pulled up to Grandma's small house. Grandma was a tall thin woman with a kind smile. She met Emma and Melissa on the front step with hugs for both of them.

The three women were so much alike! They spent the day talking about all kinds of things. Grandma made sure Emma and Melissa had plenty of snacks. Before long, it was time to go home. Emma and Melissa told Grandma that they would be back to spend another day with her very soon.

Mojo, the Dog Who Digs

Mojo was a good family dog. However, to pass the time, Mojo would dig one hole after another. His owner, Logan, would come home from work every day and find holes all over his land. This would both amaze and upset Logan. Since Mojo was not aware that this upset his owner, he kept up his instinctive habit. But soon it was evident that something had to be done about all the holes!

Early one day, Logan had a thought. He had many beautiful pines on his land. Each spring, he would plant more pines to sell to families to landscape around their homes. He could use Mojo's holes to help him plant more pines! He was positive that this was a good way to benefit from Mojo's holes.

When it was time to plant the pines, Logan did not have to dig any holes at all. He could just put the small plants in the holes dug by Mojo. The dog was unaware of the gift he had given Logan. Logan's land became even more beautiful, and he was sure that he had the best pet!

Off to the Academy

Benny and Abraham are identical twin siblings who live in Alaska. Soon, they will be finishing school. In fact, they are ending classes early to begin a special program. In April, they will be attending an academy together where they will study politics. The academy is way on the other side of the state and miles from their family. The academy is beautiful, hidden among the Alaskan landscape of big sky and tall pines. The habitat is also rich with wildlife - bats, fish, foxes, and whales!

At the academy, Benny and Abraham will share a small and cozy room just like they do back home. Unlike at home, they will have to behave like adults and put up with all the strict rules.

Since they know they will get hungry and the menu at the academy does not look so good, Benny and Abraham plan to shop before they go. They plan to bring along packs of candy, jugs of coconut water, bagels, and boxes of jelly donuts. They will also get a sofa that can recline and blankets so their friends will have a spot to sit when they come to visit. Benny will take his instruments for music classes, and Abraham will take his baseball stuff.

Benny and Abraham are so happy to be sticking together at the academy. They are not just siblings, they are also the very best of friends!

A Chinchilla for Melissa PART ONE

Since Melissa was a just a small child, she wanted a pet. However, her family did not live in a very big home, and her mother and father were unsure about owning a pet. But, Melissa did not give up her quest. Almost every day she found a way to beg and even demand that her request be met.

One day, Melissa's lamenting paid off. Her mother responded by asking Melissa what kind of pet she wanted. Melissa was quick to say, "A chinchilla!"

Melissa's mother was at a loss. She said, "What is a chinchilla? I have never heard of such a pet!"

Melissa defended herself, "Well, I am not sure, but I do know that they are cute, and I want one."

“Hmm,” began her mother, “I think that if you want a chinchilla, you should know all about them first.”

Melissa knew she could not manipulate her mother anymore, so she set off to find out everything there was to know about chinchillas. Soon, she would be a pro on the topic.

A Chinchilla for Melissa PART TWO

Melissa was in a jam. She had been quick to advocate for a pet, but she had neglected to prepare to house one. She could not state the facts to her family. So, Melissa began to study the life of a chinchilla. She went online and began to write down all the facts.

It was astonishing to Melissa to find out early on that a chinchilla is a small rodent. They are often kept as pets, yet chinchillas can jump almost five feet into the air. They have dense, ultra-soft fur. She had also been unaware that baby chinchillas are called kits. Melissa did not stop until she felt she had enough facts to once again propose her request for such a pet.

Melissa spoke to her parents and listed all there was to know about owning a chinchilla. She commented that chinchillas like to snack on twigs and grass as they sit on their hind legs. Melissa's mother and father learned that since their fur used to be in demand, the chinchillas are now extinct in some parts of the world.

It would take a lot of work to care for a chinchilla. They require dust baths and must live where there is a lot of shade. In the end, her mother and father told Melissa that her study of the chinchilla was impressive. They felt that she now had the wisdom to care for one.

At last! Melissa would get her pet!

Anna on Skates PART ONE

Anna has been on skates since she was almost four years old. She has spent most of her days at the rink. Anna and her family had to dedicate themselves to this sport early on in her life. She now skates at the top competitive level and is in first-rate shape. Her objective is to skate in the World Finals.

Anna is both athletic and talented, and she has an intensive work ethic. She also has to be optimistic and confident about her ability to win. Anna has a right to be confident because her act has all the most difficult elements. She captivates the people in the stands, and it is a thrill to see her skate.

In the fall, Anna makes the World Finals team, so now it is more important than ever for her to prepare. The prospect of a gold medal inspires her. So much will depend on the last event - the long program. A drastic mistake or even a small slip will impact the result.

Anna on Skates PART TWO

At the finals, Anna has one last skate to try to win the gold. She goes into the event with a positive attitude. Her music has a fast tempo, and the fans clap as she glides across the rink. Her landing leg is solid when she executes her axel and flip jumps. She is elegant! The fans adore her as she finishes her program with a pivot of her skates and a divine camel spin.

Anna has done her best and soon the scores come in. She has won the gold medal! Anna shakes hands with her opponents from Finland and China. She compliments them on their fantastic programs.

Then, Anna almost begins to cry as she gives a big wave to the jubilant fans in the stands. When the press comes by, Anna thanks her family and friends. She hopes to always recall this uncommon moment in her life.

NOTES

---